

Department of Chemistry Emergency Action Plan

The purpose of this policy is to prepare

B. Fires: Trained fire fighters should be called for anything more than a small fire. It is best to sound the alarm if you have any doubt about whether or not a fire can

||

Upon completion of the call, immediately notify the police and the department head or his designate of both the chemistry and biochemistry departments. They will make the decision as to the appropriate action to be taken.

The Department

