Diversity Training and Executive Order. Given the election results, it is anticipated this will be a moot point, I·ă ıúΩă ØŜ‱è fı]Ŝfè the executive order will be rescinded. The provost shared information provided from our General Counsel, Sheri Crittendon, that Executive Order 13950 was designed to try to halt training that occurs in government agencies, etc. that is involved in trying to advance diversity missions and address social justice

5. Reports from Standing Committees and Senates

   A. Academic Affairs ς Phil Vardiman/Don Von Bergen
   Von Bergen provided a summary of