

Acknowledgments:

Kansas State University Social Club expresses its sincere appreciation to Kansas State University Archives and

“Calling Cards”

Yearbooks

Previous celebrations for significant anniversaries have been

The 75th celebration program began with a luncheon followed by a

About that same time a meeting featured eight members of the Club singing excerpts from Aida. Two of the singers were charter members of the Club - second and third from the left, Mrs. George Dean and Mrs F. F. Frazier. At the December program in 1926, 70 facnp1ty gce

Early on (in 1912) the Club began evening meetings with faculty men as guests. Evening meetings included

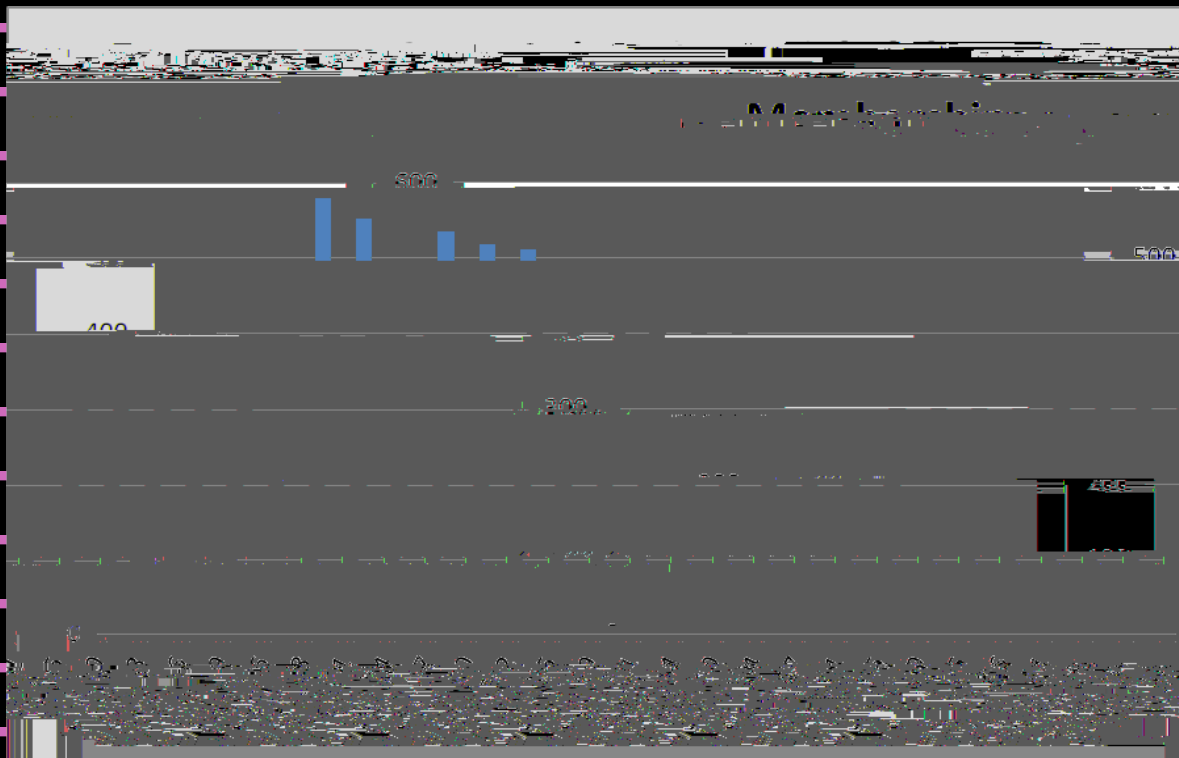

Meetings were often quite formal, with wonderful centerpieces and decorations.

While meeting in the Recreation Center in

Anderson Hall, the Club bought T-shirts, (gh Tso)3(n )JTJETTf1 0 0 1 6733.655.26

The Club's silver is now displayed in the memento room in the Alumni Center.

Membership: Has varied considerably, from 81 in 1911 through a high of 578 in 1947-48 to more recent memberships of fewer than 200. In the 1940s , 1950s and into the 1960s the Club had memberships in the fothi7rdred19628 and fi ve32(a 7rdred1.)-ip: T4(e)-3(he num2(am)4(bers)-2( re)1

The wives of the Kansas State University presidents have played important roles in the history of the Social Club. Margaret Waters, First Lady 1909-17, founded the Club and served on the executive committee. She was followed by this pretty lady Effie Lane

Mildred Leona Farrell 1925-43

Helen Eisenhower

Honorary President and First Lady
Shirley Acker 1975-86

Shirley Acker was followed by Ruth Ann Wefald who was honorary President and K

We also recognize Dr. Noel Schultz, who became First Lady at Kansas State University in

